

SAINT FRANCIS UNIVERSITY

School of Business Fellowship Information

School of Business Fellowships are available to highly capable, intellectually curious students interested in taking a more active role in their educational, personal, and spiritual development while at Saint Francis University. In addition to the monetary award, fellowship recipients are afforded the opportunity to gain valuable experience within their prospective field of study. These opportunities include, but are not limited to:

- ❖ Tutoring and mentoring peers within their respective fields
- ❖ Active participation and leadership roles in clubs and organizations related to their field of study
- ❖ Participation in respective departmental service opportunities and student recruitment efforts

The School of Business offers five Fellowships of $2,000 per year in any of the following disciplines. Recipients of a fellowship will receive this award for the four undergraduate years that they attend Saint Francis University as long as they continue to meet the requirements set forth by the department.

Accounting
Economics
Finance
Management
Management Information Systems
Marketing
